Port of Newport Commission Vacancy

The Port of Newport is accepting letters of interest from persons within the Port District boundaries to fill a vacancy in Position No. 1 on the Port Commission,

Port of Newport Commissioner Ginny Goblirsch, first appointed to the board in May 2004, has submitted a letter of resignation. Her commission expires June 30, 2015.

Interested persons should mail or hand deliver a letter of interest no later than Friday, September 30, to the Port of Newport at 600 S.E. Bay Boulevard, Newport. To be eligible, applicants must be a registered voter and reside within the Port District boundaries.

The Commission will review the letters of interest, narrow the list of potential candidates, and contact individuals for an interview. An appointment to fill the unexpired term is anticipated at the regular Port Commission meeting on October 25.
